

LGBT+ WRITING WORKSHOPS!

Are you:

- 16-20 years old
- Based in Melbourne
- Lesbian, gay, bisexual and/or queer (all genders welcome)

If this describes you, you are invited to participate in a research project on young LGBT+ people and writing. Involvement in this project will include attending a writing workshop, submitting short pieces of writing in response to prompts, and filling in short surveys.

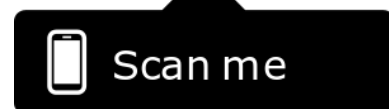

You'll have the opportunity to learn about life writing (autobiographical, memoir and personal essay writing), including techniques and tips, from a published author and editor. We would like to understand how you find the experience: what you value about writing and how the process of writing helps you make sense of your identity and your life experiences.

Information sessions will be held at La Trobe University's city campus (Level 3, 360 Collins Street, Melbourne) on the following dates:

Friday 6th September from 4pm-4:30pm

Friday 13th September from 4pm-4:30pm

Please email the researcher, Roz Bellamy, at r.bellamy@latrobe.edu.au to RSVP, and include the date of the session you are able to attend. If you're unable to attend any of these sessions, please contact Roz directly to arrange a different time.

Participants will receive up to $80 in Coles/Myer gift cards.

This research has been approved by the La Trobe University Human Ethics Committee (reference HEC19231).
